

Peace & Justice Studies Enrollment Application for Majors

Date: _____

Name: _____

ID #: _____

Email: _____

Graduation year: _____

Local Address: _____

Local Telephone: _____

Home Address: _____

Home Phone: _____

Other majors and/or minors: _____

Topics, issues or concerns you would like to study within PJS:

Past experiences with peace, justice, environmental, human rights, or 'service' organizations:

What type of internship might you be interested in, and why?

Do you plan to study abroad or at another university or program before you graduate from Tufts?

Faculty member(s) you would like to work with or have as a PJS advisor: (Elizabeth Ammons – English ; Paul Joseph - Sociology; Pearl Robinson – Political Science; Bruce Hitchner – Classics; Amahl Bishara – Anthropology; Rosalind Shaw – Anthropology; Kathleen Camara – Child Development; Steve Cohen – Education; Dale Bryan - PJS):

Indicate by semester the required courses you have completed, or when you might.

Introductory: PJS 001 Introduction to Peace and Justice Studies _____

Intermediate: One course from each of the following core areas:

A) War and Peace

PJS/ANTH 25 Anthropology and Armed Conflict _____

PJS/SOC 120 Sociology of War and Peace _____

PS 61 Introduction to International Relations _____

PJS/PS 170 Understanding Civil Wars: Internal Wars & Int'l Responses _____

B) Justice

PJS/ANTH 165 After Violence: Truth, Justice and Social Repair _____

PJS/ENG160 Environmental Justice and World Literature _____

PJS/SOC 130 Social Justice, Social Inequalities _____

PJS/PHIL 141 Global Justice _____

PJS 150-01 Introduction to Social Justice _____

PJS 150-06 Gender, Sexuality, and Human Rights in the Middle East _____

PJS 150-07/PS 188 Race, Ethnicity and US Africa Policy _____

PJS 150-10 Introduction to Human Rights _____

C) Violence and Peace in Culture

ANTH 149-07 Practices and Politics of Knowledge in the Middle East _____

PJS/ENG 175 War and American Values _____

PJS/FAH 002 Art History from 1700 to the Present _____

PJS/RUS 75 War Stories _____

PHIL 91 War and Terrorism _____

PJS/ED 164 Education for Peace and Justice _____

PJS/PS 121 Political Culture in Comparative Perspective _____

PJS 150-03 Genocide _____

PJS 150-03 Interventions in Africa: Violence & Technologies of Repair _____

PJS 150-06/RUS/ILVS/WL 91: War Stories _____

PJS 150-08 Peace Implementation in Bosnia _____

PJS 150-09/HIST 93 Black Panther Party _____

D) Conflict Resolution

PJS 150-05 Introduction to Conflict Resolution _____

PJS 131/UEP 130 Negotiation, Mediation, and Conflict Resolution _____

E) Creating Social Change

PJS/ANTH 27 Human Rights in Cultural Context _____

PJS/CH 109 Community Action and Social Movements in Public Health _____

PJS/HIST 128 Civil Rights Movement _____

PJS/SOC 135 Social Movements _____

PJS/SOC 111 Making Social Change Happen: Grassroots Activism _____

PJS 150-02 Telling the Climate Justice Story _____

PJS 150-04/ CD 143 Arts, Resilience and Social Justice _____

PJS 150-07 The Arab Spring _____

Advanced:

PJS 99 Internship in Social Change Organizations _____

PJS 190 Integrative Seminar in Peace, Justice, and Social Change _____

PJS 198 Senior Honor's Thesis in Peace and Justice Studies _____

(May be used to replace one of required three electives; Note: students undertaking a thesis must still complete PJS 190 senior seminar)

Electives

Three (only 2 are required if PJS 198 is completed)

Note: After completing this application, please contact the PJS Director, Prof. Bruce Hitchner (Eaton 320) and schedule an appointment to discuss with him your interest in PJS. Please get Prof. Hitchner's signature and return the signed application to the PJS office, 109 Eaton Hall.

Last updated 10/30/15